📅 Effective Date: 15th June 2025
🔍 Reviewed by: Rahul R Jadhav

1. Objective

The primary objective of the Annual Employee Performance Review is to fairly assess employee performance, provide constructive feedback, and establish goals that promote professional growth and contribute to organisational success.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all employees who have completed at least one year of continuous service with HR Magix as of 31st March.

3. Timeline

- The annual appraisal process will be conducted in April of every year.

4. Appraisal Criteria

Performance appraisals are based on the following key criteria:

- Job Performance – Assessment of task execution and achievement of job responsibilities.
 - Skills and Competencies – Evaluation of relevant skills and professional knowledge.
 - Goal Achievement – Review of the completion of assigned goals.
 - Communication and Collaboration – Ability to communicate effectively and collaborate with team members.
 - Leadership (if applicable) – Demonstration of leadership qualities and decision-making abilities.
 - Adherence to Company Policies and SOPs – Compliance with organisational policies.
 - Attendance – Regularity and punctuality.
 - Memo – Consideration of any memos or warnings issued.
 - Employee Behaviour – Professional conduct and attitude.

5. Procedure

a. Preparation

- HR will notify all eligible employees and their managers via official email regarding the upcoming appraisal process.
- Employees will be provided with appraisal forms and guidelines to facilitate self-assessment.
- Employees are encouraged to conduct a self-assessment based on the predefined appraisal criteria.

b. Appraisal Meeting

- Managers will conduct one-on-one appraisal meetings with their respective employees.
- During these meetings, managers will review employee performance against the appraisal criteria, highlighting strengths and identifying areas for improvement.
- Employees will be encouraged to share their perspectives, career aspirations, and challenges.

c. Performance Evaluation

- Managers will evaluate employee performance based on the predefined criteria and incorporate employee input where applicable.
- Scores or ratings will be assigned, considering both quantitative and qualitative factors.

d. Feedback and Goal Setting

- Constructive feedback will be provided to employees, focusing on improving performance and professional development.
- Managers and employees will collaboratively establish SMART (Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Relevant, Time-bound) goals for the upcoming appraisal period.

e. Documentation

- All appraisal discussions, feedback, and goal-setting details will be documented.

- Documentation will include appraisal forms, meeting notes, and relevant correspondence.
- Records will be securely maintained by HR and accessible only to authorised personnel.

f. Confidentiality

- All appraisal-related documentation and discussions will be treated with strict confidentiality.
- Only authorised personnel involved in the appraisal process will have access to these records.

6. Conclusion

The performance appraisal process is a critical component of HR Magix's commitment to fostering a culture of continuous improvement and professional excellence. Regular feedback, goal setting, and open communication will help ensure employee growth and organisational success.

7. Policy Review and Updates

This policy is subject to periodic review and revision to ensure alignment with organisational objectives and industry best practices.
